3.10. Please Note

- During the Austrian Presidency, video recordings, audio recordings and photos featuring attendees may be taken. This material may be shared by the Austrian Presidency or the Austrian Federal Government including on their websites or social media channels. By attending events, attendees agree to this material being published on an unlimited basis.
- Workspaces in the media centres are allocated on a first-come first-served basis. Event organisers are unable to reserve workspaces for media representatives. The Austrian Presidency team will remove from unoccupied workspaces any reserved signs placed there by media representatives an hour after the start of an event.

- The Austrian Presidency assumes no responsibility for loss or damage to property.
- Taking photos or making recordings of confidential documents or other property belonging to attendees (including with mobile phones) is strictly forbidden.
- Under no circumstances are security staff to be filmed or photographed.
- The Federal Press Service reserves the right, should the need arise, to confiscate accreditation badges and thus revoke accreditation.
- Items which are not allowed to be brought into the media centre in accordance with the house rules or for security reasons may be handed over for safekeeping to the security team members at accreditation; you may pick up these items when you leave the building.
- Lost property will be kept at the information desk of the media centre in the Schloss Hof for the duration of the event. If the owner can be identified, the organisational team of the Austrian Presidency will contact the owner. Any uncollected items or items whose owner cannot be identified will be handed over to the Lost and Found Service of the City of Vienna.

4. Host Services

4.1. Host Broadcaster

ORF (Austrian Broadcasting Corporation) is the host broadcaster for the Austrian Presidency and will provide free of charge to any interested Austrian or international radio stations and television channels audiovisual material in broadcast quality (HD) on this informal meeting of agriculture ministers.
